

Cornell University
Cooperative Extension
Otsego County

NEWS RELEASE

HOME PLATE BOOKS NOW AVAILABLE

Home Plate: The Traveler's Food Guide to Cooperstown and Otsego County, NY is now available at bookstores and retailers, throughout the area, including Cornell Cooperative Extension in Cooperstown, and online at www.homeplatefoodguide.com.

This beautiful book, with its striking cover and photography features profiles of Otsego County farmers, small businesses and institutions, paired with recipes showcasing New York State agricultural products. Home Plate also includes a guide to touring Otsego County, a calendar of agri-tourism events, a Celebrity Chefs section and more

Home Plate: The Traveler's Food Guide to Cooperstown and Otsego County, NY is a collaborative non-profit project of local talent. Professional services of researching and writing have been contributed by Brenda Berstler; book design by Curt Akin, Syllables Press; art by Alyssa Kosmer and Anne Geddes-Atwell and photography by Richard Duncan, all to benefit the residents of Otsego County.

Home Plate is a cultural road map of our area and it makes a great gift and keepsake of Otsego County. All proceeds benefit the community outreach programs of Cornell Cooperative Extension of Otsego County (CCE) and The Walking Example Group (WE GO).