Little Ones' Library Hosts Third Birthday Bash

The Little Ones' Library is turning three and a celebration is planned for Saturday, June 21, 2003. From 10 am until 12 noon we'll be celebrating three years of serving very young children in the Accord-Kerhonkson area, and that means there will be singing, party games, and plenty of ice cream and cake!! We'll read books about birthdays and different ways to celebrate them. All youngsters, and their adult caregivers are invited to our party to play, count candles and help us celebrate. Come see what surprise gift will be given to the Little Ones' Library this year. In the past, unwrapping it has been as much fun as finding out what's inside. For attendees who would like to bring a small gift to the celebration children enjoy using stickers, glue sticks, cotton balls, fat crayons, colored paper and contact paper at the Library. The party is free of charge— gifts are optional.

The Little Ones' Library, located at the Rochester Reformed Church, 5142 Rte. 209, Accord, serves children from birth through early elementary age. Established by Cornell Cooperative Extension of Ulster County, with help from community partners, it provides library experiences for children in the rural Accord/Kerhonkson area. For more information about Library hours, storytimes and activities, please contact Marie Ulmer at 626-4112 or Sue Matson at 340-3990.
